PREFACE

While there is data to accumulate, the writing goes on, for it is all about knowledge development that never ceases with me, no matter what the subject is, as anything comprehensible is food for thought to reflect upon. This is the way I have written 179 eBooks of my life experience post the scientific research in the laboratory and in the field. It is experience of life from immersing oneself in Creation that comes naturally to me.

In so doing I have clearly exhibited a Smashing Display of entrepreneurial talent conducted on a freelance basis without the need to have a boss to account for my works, merely putting it into the Court of Public Opinion and for posterity for anyone wishing to know what I have been up to. To me they constituted a smashing display, to others they may be meaningless and totally incomprehensible. Little do I care. I plod on not knowing where this means that I found will lead to in terms of the development of my websites and further eBooks.

SO, WHAT IS NEXT ON THE AGENDA

Update:

I still have access to the Liberal Democrats Campaigners Hub, so my membership of the Party continues. What form that membership takes only time will tell for the Party has not replied to any of my questioning emails thus far.

12.47 pm (UK-Time) 16 April 2024

I wrote two paragraphs setting out my conclusions in the eBook 'Collecting the Dough' to place my up-to-the-moment assessment of where I stand with regard to the existence of The Conservative Libertarian Society, and The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) and updated that book in 'The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop'. I then checked if I am still accessing the Liberal Democrats Campaigners Hub and I could. So, it would appear that the Liberal Democrats have accepted that I could continue with my Society and TCLP-UK's work on policy issues and still retain membership of the Liberal Democrats Party. The next question is whether I receive any Party electioneering emails as I have received in the last two weeks.

Dear Dr Panigrahi

Thank you for your email.

From the email below it appears that Mr Forz Khan was representing you. Therefore, if you wish to make a report about him, you will need to firstly make a report to the barrister or his chambers through their complaints process, allowing them about 4 weeks to respond to you. If after this you are still not satisfied, you will need to make your report to the Legal Ombudsman. You can find more information about the Legal Ombudsman here <https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/>.

Dear Sirs

Either Mr Forz Khan was and perhaps still is insincere (for he has not immediately acknowledged my concern), but attempting to extract £3000 as fee for the prosecution of Kent Police remains unjustified.

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in either the Magistrates Court or in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

The highest Court of the United Kingdom it emerges is the Crown Court which has a Case has to go through towards...

I am not legally trained obviously, perhaps I need to go through North Kent Magistrates Court first because the summons that I required from Maidstone Crown Court has met with a blank wall of silence.

If you can advise me for a small Fee as one-off payment just for legal advice and not anything further, I would be grateful.

Dear Sir

I am not going to waste my time now with the process of complaints at Forz Khan or his chambers and never in a million years will I ever take my Complaint to the Legal Ombudsman for it is prejudiced against me as most recently evidenced from the manner in which the Legal Ombudsman dodged its responsibility over the complaint against Olives Solicitors who were usurped by Kent Police to terrorise me as a suspect on framed offences of stalking and sending malicious communications to individuals and institutions.

Over the past 10 years I brought numerous complaints against Law Firms to the Legal Ombudsman and I was totally dissatisfied by the responses which made it clear to me that the Legal Ombudsman were manipulated by the State-authorities against me, that led to the University of Greenwich depriving me of my severance pay at the very least of £55,000 (even if one was to not include the lost salary over the 26 years resulting from the unfounded allegation that I was blameworthy of gross misconduct so needed to be dismissed from employment); and being treated unfairly by the Cabinet Office depriving me of the £4170 that I had to pay as costs in my £100 million demand for damages and compensation in (Panigrahi vs Prime Minister of the United Kingdom) in Claim Number E35YM660 of the Central London County Court that Mr Forz Khan distanced himself from in the middle of proceedings, apart from the obvious case of the private prosecution of Kent Police that Mr Khan prevaricated over taking undue time to file the summons in East Kent Magistrates Court or North Kent Magistrates Court, so that I had to demand my £3000 paid to him/his chambers. He was also apparently in receipt of trolling emails organised by M15/M16 to pervert the course of justice against me in these matters, perhaps he can put the record straight now.

For your information the Case is pending attention of the Judge at Maidstone Crown Court at this moment as linked here:

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 12 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6167

SLOUGH

SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

If you are requesting personal data under Freedom of Information or the Environmental Information Regulations or would like a copy of personal data under Data Protection please email infosec@legalombudsman.org.uk

Visit our website to find out how we use your personal data.

THIS IS AN AUTOMATED RESPONSE – PLEASE DO NOT REPLY

Thank you for contacting the Contact and Assessment Team of the BSB.

If you are seeking to make a report

Please use our online reporting form which is available here. This will ensure that your report is properly logged and will help to provide us with the information we need to complete an assessment of your concern.

If you have already made a report

We receive a large number of reports and it is currently taking us at least eight weeks to complete an initial assessment. We will contact you once we have completed our assessment, although we may be in touch with you before then if we need more information about your concern. Please note that we can't give detailed updates on the progress of our assessments.

If you are a barrister making a report about another barrister under rule rC66 of The BSB Handbook, we will only contact you if we need more information. You won't be informed of the outcome of our assessment.

You can read about our process for assessing information here.

If you are making a general enquiry

Answers to frequently asked questions and a link to our Contact Form can be found here.

We try to answer all queries within 5 working days. If we need to pass your enquiry to another team, we will let you know. If that happens, please allow extra time for a response.

Please note we won't be able to give advice or answer queries about specific conduct or applications.

With the silence I had to force the proceedings of this book into Maidstone Crown Court so incorporated it in the book 'Collecting the Dough' in The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop, because posting it in the open website would have exposed me to all kinds of litigations which would have destroyed me and all that I have achieved. The last Blogpost in Daily Bulletin: <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/uncertainties-persist-membership-number-is-24041198559> takes the Reader and the Judge presiding over the Case in Maidstone Crown Court or anyone else for that matter may be concerned to that eBook and hence this document. I will use this document solely for legal purposes developing further as things emerge.

So once again the ball is in Maidstone Crown Court with full access to my submissions.

 The Circuit Judge
 Central London County Court

Your Honour

The absence of an acknowledgement of a private prosecution that I have been pursuing since 2017 against Kent Police at the Maidstone Crown Court leads me to consider that this matter is not considered by the Judge as being criminal but is civil in terms of Law Enforcement.

Please therefore find attached an update as a document that I have compiled today giving details of current considerations from the Claimant's point of view (SMASHING DISPLAY-digital.pdf); that I am submitting for the Hearing or for Directions or Judgment/Order of the Court in relation to the Notice of Hearing of 20 January 2023 10 am as attached: CenLonCtyCrtNOTICEOFHEARINGOFAPPLICATION.pdf.

Kent Police has not furnished its Report on my complaint CO/999/23.

The Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman has not furnished its report on my complaint against the National Health Service and Jill Jesson of Vitali-Chi.

Mr Mike Dixon of the Liberal Democrats that I joined on 1 April 2024 has now blocked me from receiving texts on WhatsApp, and will be required to testify if the matter goes to a Hearing instead or being settled on a Summary Judgment in my favour for damages and compensation of £100 million from the United Kingdom's Treasury.

Yours sincerely

The hearing of the claimant's application dated 23.06.2022

will take place at 10:00 AM on the 20 January 2023 at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

Time estimate 1 hour IN PERSON before a Circuit Judge

LISTING POLICY: The court's listing policy is determined by the senior judge and implemented by staff in accordance with his directions. Your case may not be allocated to a judge until the day of the hearing, and may have to wait in the unassigned list until a judge becomes available to hear it. Every effort will be made to ensure that your case is heard at this or another convenient court. If it is not possible to provide a judge to hear your case, the court and Her Majesty's Court and Tribunal Service will not be responsible for any costs incurred in the absence of any departure from listing policy due to maladministration.

Parties should be aware that this case may be one of several cases that have been listed to commence at this time. This may mean that your case will not be called immediately at the time scheduled, but may be heard later in the day. We will try to ensure that if your case is listed in the morning it is heard by 1pm and if your case is listed in the afternoon it is heard by 4pm. In some circumstances it is possible that your hearing could overrun. You and any witnesses should therefore be available until the end of these periods or even later.

If there are special reasons why this is inconvenient you may make a short notice application to a circuit judge to adjourn. Ordinary inconvenience arising from the fact of being in the unassigned list will not be sufficient reason for an adjournment, nor will the fact that both parties agree to an adjournment.

ACCESSIBILITY: Please inform us as soon as possible if you, your witnesses or legal representatives have a physical disability that may affect your attendance at this court. We can make alternative arrangements for the case to be heard in a suitable court room by calling the Customer Service Team on 0300 123 5577.

FILING OF SKELETON ARGUMENTS AND TRIAL BUNDLES: Trial bundles (if applicable) should be lodged no earlier than 3 working days before the trial (unless otherwise ordered). All trial bundles should be clearly marked as being heard by a Circuit Judge. Any bundles delivered by hand can be dropped off at the public counter by obtaining an appointment by ringing the appointment line on 0207 947 7502 indicating that the delivery is for a trial bundle.

The court office at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL. When corresponding with the court, please address forms or letters to the Court Manager and quote the claim number. Tel: 0300 123 5577. Check if you can issue your claim online. It will save you time and money. Go to www.moneyclaim.gov.uk to find out more.

Skeleton arguments for this case should be sent by email to CentralLondonCJSKEL@justice.gov.uk. Parties may not send PDF files to this Inbox. Any emails to which PDF files are attached will be deleted without having been opened or read. Furthermore, do not send skeletons by FAX or by any other means unless email is not available in which case explanation must be provided with the document.

Information for people with disabilities visiting the Royal Courts of Justice (RCJ)

At HM Courts & Tribunals Service (HMCTS) we want to provide:

- an experience that works for everyone
- services that people with disabilities can use independently where possible
- services that can be used in a fair way

We know that people with disabilities sometimes need our help and support to use our services. This can mean that we need to provide something different so you can access and use our services in the same way as a person without a disability. We often call this a reasonable adjustment.

What reasonable adjustments can we provide?

We're able to do lots of things that mean that people with disabilities can use our services independently wherever possible and in a way that is fair, for example:

- providing our forms in large print
- providing our guidance in audio or easy read
- making sure hearing enhancement systems are available
- providing a separate waiting area
- making sure ramps and lifts are available.

This list doesn't include everything we can do to help, and we'll always talk to you first about what you need.

If you need help or support in the hearing room, we will also discuss this with the judge hearing your case. Judges are committed to making sure everyone can give their best evidence and everyone has a fair hearing.

How to arrange a reasonable adjustment?

Disabilities affect people differently so we won't always know what will help. If you have a disability that means you can't access our information and services please get in touch with us. You can request help and support as a reasonable adjustment by phone, in person or in writing by:

- emailing RCJ.DCO@justice.gov.uk, or centrallondoncounty.dco@justice.gov.uk
- phoning our Disability Contact Officer 0207 947 6063.

To help us provide the best help and support, you should try to explain how your disability affects you and give as much information as you can. This will help our staff or the judge to consider what you'll need to do during your case and any help we can provide. Our staff will always talk with you and agree any reasonable adjustments you need.

Please note.

Many areas of the RCJ are Grade I listed, and this means there may be restrictions to the changes we can make. Some of the areas you will need to access could be a 5 to 10-minute walk from the nearest entrance.

Getting around our building and support before the hearing.

- If you need a parking space (blue badge holders only) please contact the Listing Office by letter, e-mail or phone at least 24 hours before your hearing.
- email: RCJ.DCO@justice.gov.uk or centrallondoncounty.dco@justice.gov.uk
- tel: 0207 947 6063

Please include:

- your case number
- car registration, make, model and colour
- your Blue Badge number and issuing authority.

• Wheelchair access into the RCJ is available at:

- West Green (9am - 4.30pm), and
- Bell Yard North (9.30am - 4.30pm).

These entrances and the main entrance have intercoms linked to RCJ Security.

- Step-free access (via ramps, stair lifts and lifts) is available to most areas of the building. A map detailing the best routes for step-free access is available at each entrance and/or upon request.
- Accessible toilets are located throughout the RCJ. Maps are available but please let us know if you need details in advance.
- If you have limited mobility, we have a limited number of manual wheelchairs available for use. You may bring a carer or helper to support you using the wheelchair.
- Support Through Court are a charity supporting people who face court alone so that they can represent themselves to the best of their abilities. You can find out more information on www.supportthroughcourt.org or phoning 020 7947 7701.
- Assistance dogs are welcome in all HMCTS buildings.

The hearing.

For the hearing itself, we can provide:

- breaks in court proceedings. We will ask the judge to consider your request before your hearing begins

- help with reading and writing court forms. Some court documents can be provided in large print or braille <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/court-and-tribunal-forms>.
- hearing enhancement systems in some of our courts (and available at reception and at our public counters). We also have portable hearing loops available on request.

Cases are listed in accordance with local hearing arrangements determined by the Judiciary and implemented by court staff. Every effort is made to ensure that hearings start either at the time specified or as soon as possible thereafter. However, listing practices or other factors may mean that delay is unavoidable. Furthermore, in some instances a case may be released to another judge, possibly at a different court. Please contact the court for further information on the listing arrangements that may apply to your hearing.

Comments:

The truth of the matter is that this is a never-ending struggle for justice. Struggle where one is faced with silence to one truth-seeking endeavours. One is just left to read between the lines and trudge along. Once defamed there is no comeback in the material world. For those who defame you do so because you have a superior outlook on life. One is left in solitude. They do not want to know, for they have a different agenda for the society. A structured democracy suits them well, with the Crown arranging it. The Crown is not answerable to anyone. The political parties have to fit into that vision of the society.

Today is the final approach that I have made to the Courts, as both the Maidstone Crown Court and the Central London County Court are in receipt of my email of last night and all three political parties are copied into the email too for their responses, with Mr Mike Dixon being required to testify at any Hearing that the Courts would have had to implement, as clearly stated in my email. So it corners the State-authorities into submission to the force of truth exposure.

To
 The Circuit Judge
 Central London County Court

Your Honour

The absence of an acknowledgement of a private prosecution that I have been pursuing since 2017 against Kent Police at the Maidstone Crown Court leads me to consider that this matter is not considered by the Judge as being criminal but is civil in terms of Law Enforcement.

Please therefore find attached an update as a document that I have compiled today giving details of current considerations from the Claimant's point of view (SMASHING DISPLAY-digital.pdf); that I am submitting for the Hearing or for Directions or Judgment/Order of the Court in relation to the Notice of Hearing of 20 January 2023 10 am as attached: CenLonCtyCrtNOTICEOFHEARINGOFAPPLICATION.pdf.

Kent Police has not furnished its Report on my complaint CO/999/23.

The Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman has not furnished its report on my complaint against the National Health Service and Jill Jesson of Vitali-Chi.

Mr Mike Dixon of the Liberal Democrats that I joined on 1 April 2024 has now blocked me from receiving texts on WhatsApp, and will be required to testify if the matter goes to a Hearing instead or being settled on a Summary Judgment in my favour for damages and compensation of £100 million from the United Kingdom's Treasury.

Yours sincerely

PREFACE

While there is data to accumulate, the writing goes on, for it is all about knowledge development that never ceases with me, no matter what the subject is, as anything comprehensible is food for thought to reflect upon. This is the way I have written 179 eBooks of my life experience post the scientific research in the laboratory and in the field. It is experience of life from immersing oneself in Creation that comes naturally to me.

In so doing I have clearly exhibited a Smashing Display of entrepreneurial talent conducted on a freelance basis without the need to have a boss to account for my works, merely putting it into the Court of Public Opinion and for posterity for anyone wishing to know what I have been up to. To me they constituted a smashing display, to others they may be meaningless and totally incomprehensible. Little do I care. I plod on not knowing where this means that I found will lead to in terms of the development of my websites and further eBooks.

Update:

I still have access to the Liberal Democrats Campaigners Hub, so my membership of the Party continues. What form that membership takes only time will tell for the Party has not replied to any of my questioning emails thus far.

12.47 pm (UK-Time) 16 April 2024

I wrote two paragraphs setting out my conclusions in the eBook 'Collecting the Dough' to place my up-to-the-moment assessment of where I stand with regard to the existence of The Conservative Libertarian Society, and The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) and updated that book in 'The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop'. I then checked if I am still accessing the Liberal Democrats Campaigners Hub and I could. So, it would appear that the Liberal Democrats have accepted that I could continue with my Society and TCLP-UK's work on policy issues and still retain membership of the Liberal Democrats Party. The next question is whether I receive any Party electioneering emails as I have received in the last two weeks.

Dear Dr Panigrahi

Thank you for your email.

From the email below it appears that Mr Forz Khan was representing you. Therefore, if you wish to make a report about him, you will need to firstly make a report to the barrister or his chambers through their complaints process, allowing them about 4 weeks to respond to you. If after this you are still not satisfied, you will need to make your report to the Legal Ombudsman. You can find more information about the Legal Ombudsman here <https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/>.

Dear Sirs

Either Mr Forz Khan was and perhaps still is insincere (for he has not immediately acknowledged my concern), but attempting to extract £3000 as fee for the prosecution of Kent Police remains unjustified.

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in either the Magistrates Court or in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

The highest Court of the United Kingdom it emerges is the Crown Court which has a Case has to go through towards...

I am not legally trained obviously, perhaps I need to go through North Kent Magistrates Court first because the summons that I required from Maidstone Crown Court has met with a blank wall of silence.

If you can advise me for a small Fee as one-off payment just for legal advice and not anything further, I would be grateful.

Dear Sir

I am not going to waste my time now with the process of complaints at Forz Khan or his chambers and never in a million years will I ever take my Complaint to the Legal Ombudsman for it is prejudiced against me as most recently evidenced from the manner in which the Legal Ombudsman dodged its responsibility over the complaint against Olives Solicitors who were usurped by Kent Police to terrorise me as a suspect on framed offences of stalking and sending malicious communications to individuals and institutions.

Over the past 10 years I brought numerous complaints against Law Firms to the Legal Ombudsman and I was totally dissatisfied by the responses which made it clear to me that the Legal Ombudsman were manipulated by the State-authorities against me, that led to the University of Greenwich depriving me of my severance pay at the very least of £55,000 (even if one was to not include the lost salary over the 26 years resulting from the unfounded allegation that I was blameworthy of gross misconduct so needed to be dismissed from employment); and being treated unfairly by the Cabinet Office depriving me of the £4170 that I had to pay as costs in my £100 million demand for damages and compensation in (Panigrahi vs Prime Minister of the United Kingdom) in Claim Number E35YM660 of the Central London County Court that Mr Forz Khan distanced himself from in the middle of proceedings, apart from the obvious case of the private prosecution of Kent Police that Mr Khan prevaricated over taking undue time to file the summons in East Kent Magistrates Court or North Kent Magistrates Court, so that I had to demand my £3000 paid to him/his chambers. He was also apparently in receipt of trolling emails organised by M15/M16 to pervert the course of justice against me in these matters, perhaps he can put the record straight now.

For your information the Case is pending attention of the Judge at Maidstone Crown Court at this moment as linked here:

Dear Dr Panigrahi

Thank you for your email.

From the email below it appears that Mr Forz Khan was representing you. Therefore, if you wish to make a report about him, you will need to firstly make a report to the barrister or his chambers through their complaints process, allowing them about 4 weeks to respond to you. If after this you are still not satisfied, you will need to make your report to the Legal Ombudsman. You can find more information about the Legal Ombudsman here <https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/>.

Dear Sirs

Either Mr Forz Khan was and perhaps still is insincere (for he has not immediately acknowledged my concern), but attempting to extract £3000 as fee for the prosecution of Kent Police remains unjustified.

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in either the Magistrates Court or in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

The highest Court of the United Kingdom it emerges is the Crown Court which has a Case has to go through towards...

I am not legally trained obviously, perhaps I need to go through North Kent Magistrates Court first because the summons that I required from Maidstone Crown Court has met with a blank wall of silence.

If you can advise me for a small Fee as one-off payment just for legal advise and not anything further, I would be grateful.

Yours sincerely

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 12 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6167

SLOUGH

SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

If you are requesting personal data under Freedom of Information or the Environmental Information Regulations or would like a copy of personal data under Data Protection please email infosec@legalombudsman.org.uk

THIS IS AN AUTOMATED RESPONSE – PLEASE DO NOT REPLY

Thank you for contacting the Contact and Assessment Team of the BSB.

If you are seeking to make a report

Please use our online reporting form which is available here. This will ensure that your report is properly logged and will help to provide us with the information we need to complete an assessment of your concern.

If you have already made a report

We receive a large number of reports and it is currently taking us at least eight weeks to complete an initial assessment. We will contact you once we have completed our assessment, although we may be in touch with you before then if we need more information about your concern. Please note that we can't give detailed updates on the progress of our assessments.

If you are a barrister making a report about another barrister under rule rC66 of The BSB Handbook, we will only contact you if we need more information. You won't be informed of the outcome of our assessment.

You can read about our process for assessing information here.

If you are making a general enquiry

Answers to frequently asked questions and a link to our Contact Form can be found here.

We try to answer all queries within 5 working days. If we need to pass your enquiry to another team, we will let you know. If that happens, please allow extra time for a response.

Please note we won't be able to give advice or answer queries about specific conduct or applications.

Hi Adam

I was looking through the Campaigns Hub and noticed that your name is mentioned for obtaining Members Form Leaflets. If this correct, could you send me one of the leaflets by email so that I can approach my contacts to see if they would be interested in joining the Liberal Democrats.

My own membership number is 24041198559.

Thank you for your kind attention.

With the silence I had to force the proceedings of this book into Maidstone Crown Court so incorporated it in the book 'Collecting the Dough' in The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop, because posting it in the open website would have exposed me to all kinds of litigations which would have destroyed me and all that I have achieved. The last Blogpost in Daily Bulletin: <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/uncertainties-persist-membership-number-is-24041198559> takes the Reader and the Judge presiding over the Case in Maidstone Crown Court or anyone else for that matter may be concerned to that eBook and hence this document. I will use this document solely for legal purposes developing further as things emerge.

So once again the ball is in Maidstone Crown Court with full access to my submissions.

Date	13 December 2022

DR SHANTANU PANIGRAHI	1 st Claimant Ref
MRS THERESA MAY - PRIME MINISTER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM	1 st Defendant Ref Z1819776/MMX/ HO19

The hearing of the claimant's application dated 23.06.2022

will take place at 10:00 AM on the 20 January 2023 at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

Time estimate 1 hour IN PERSON before a Circuit Judge

LISTING POLICY: The court's listing policy is determined by the senior judge and implemented by staff in accordance with his directions. Your case may not be allocated to a judge until the day of the hearing, and may have to wait in the unassigned list until a judge becomes available to hear it. Every effort will be made to ensure that your case is heard at this or another convenient court. If it is not possible to provide a judge to hear your case, the court and Her Majesty's Court and Tribunal Service will not be responsible for any costs incurred in the absence of any departure from listing policy due to maladministration.

Parties should be aware that this case may be one of several cases that have been listed to commence at this time. This may mean that your case will not be called immediately at the time scheduled, but may be heard later in the day. We will try to ensure that if your case is listed in the morning it is heard by 1pm and if your case is listed in the afternoon it is heard by 4pm. In some circumstances it is possible that your hearing could overrun. You and any witnesses should therefore be available until the end of these periods or even later.

If there are special reasons why this is inconvenient you may make a short notice application to a circuit judge to adjourn. Ordinary inconvenience arising from the fact of being in the unassigned list will not be sufficient reason for an adjournment, nor will the fact that both parties agree to an adjournment.

ACCESSIBILITY: Please inform us as soon as possible if you, your witnesses or legal representatives have a physical disability that may affect your attendance at this court. We can make alternative arrangements for the case to be heard in a suitable court room by calling the Customer Service Team on 0300 123 5577.

FILING OF SKELETON ARGUMENTS AND TRIAL BUNDLES: Trial bundles (if applicable) should be lodged no earlier than 3 working days before the trial (unless otherwise ordered). All trial bundles should be

The court office at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL. When corresponding with the court, please address forms or letters to the Court Manager and quote the claim number. Tel: 0300 123 5577. Check if you can issue your claim online. It will save you time and money. Go to www.moneyclaim.gov.uk to find out more.

- emailing RCJ.DCO@justice.gov.uk, or centrallondoncounty.dco@justice.gov.uk
- phoning our Disability Contact Officer 0207 947 6063.

To help us provide the best help and support, you should try to explain how your disability affects you and give as much information as you can. This will help our staff or the judge to consider what you'll need to do during your case and any help we can provide. Our staff will always talk with you and agree any reasonable adjustments you need.

Please note.

Many areas of the RCJ are Grade 1 listed, and this means there may be restrictions to the changes we can make. Some of the areas you will need to access could be a 5 to 10-minute walk from the nearest entrance.

In compliance with GDPR requirements, the privacy notice sets out the standards that you can expect from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) and HM Court and Tribunals Service (HMCTS) when we process personal data about you in the context of civil court proceedings; how you can get access to a copy of your personal data; and what you can do if you think the standards are not being met. Information for people with disabilities visiting the Royal Courts of Justice (RCJ)

At HM Courts & Tribunals Service (HMCTS) we want to provide:

- an experience that works for everyone
- services that people with disabilities can use independently where possible
- services that can be used in a fair way

We know that people with disabilities sometimes need our help and support to use our services. This can mean that we need to provide something different so you can access and use our services in the same way as a person without a disability. We often call this a reasonable adjustment.

What reasonable adjustments can we provide?

We're able to do lots of things that mean that people with disabilities can use our services independently wherever possible and in a way that is fair, for example:

- providing our forms in large print
- providing our guidance in audio or easy read
- making sure hearing enhancement systems are available
- providing a separate waiting area
- making sure ramps and lifts are available.

This list doesn't include everything we can do to help, and we'll always talk to you first about what you need.

If you need help or support in the hearing room, we will also discuss this with the judge hearing your case. Judges are committed to making sure everyone can give their best evidence and everyone has a fair hearing.

How to arrange a reasonable adjustment?

Disabilities affect people differently so we won't always know what will help. If you have a disability that means you can't access our information and services please get in touch with us. You can request help and support as a reasonable adjustment by phone, in person or in writing by:

- help with reading and writing court forms. Some court documents can be provided in large print or braille <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/court-and-tribunal-forms>.
- hearing enhancement systems in some of our courts (and available at reception and at our public counters). We also have portable hearing loops available on request.

Cases are listed in accordance with local hearing arrangements determined by the Judiciary and implemented by court staff. Every effort is made to ensure that hearings start either at the time specified or as soon as possible thereafter. However, listing practices or other factors may mean that delay is unavoidable. Furthermore, in some instances a case may be released to another judge, possibly at a different court. Please contact the court for further information on the listing arrangements that may apply to your hearing.

Comments:

The truth of the matter is that this is a never-ending struggle for justice. Struggle where one is faced with silence to one truth-seeking endeavours. One is just left to read between the lines and trudge along. Once defamed there is no comeback in the material world. For those who defame you do so because you have a superior outlook on life. One is left in solitude. They do not want to know, for they have a different agenda for the society. A structured democracy suits them well, with the Crown arranging it. The Crown is not answerable to anyone. The political parties have to fit into that vision of the society.

Today is the final approach that I have made to the Courts, as both the Maidstone Crown Court and the Central London County Court are in receipt of my email of last night and all three political parties are copied into the email too for their responses, with Mr Mike Dixon being required to testify at any Hearing that the Courts would have had to implement, as clearly stated in my email. So, it corners the State-authorities into submission to the force of truth exposure.

Postal votes are dropping

 Countdown to the General Election

Hi Shantanu,

Postal votes are set to land through doors in the next week or so for council, PCC and Mayoral elections in many parts of the country.
 Postal Vote 'Get Out The Vote' templates

People with postal votes are much more likely to actually vote in elections than people who don't. So this next week - and the campaigning we do with postal voters - could make all the difference between winning and losing on 2nd May.

You can find all the Campaigns & Elections Team's templates to help with your postal vote 'Get Out The Vote' operation on the Campaign Hub:

Find out Postal Vote GOTV templates here →

These templates are part of our year round campaign materials that are on the Campaign Hub. The Hub is FREE to all party members so if you - or other members of your local team - aren't already signed up to it click on the link below.

Sign up to the Campaign Hub here →

Postal Votes and the law

It is illegal for political campaigners to handle someone else's postal vote pack. This can carry a fine and up to 2 years in prison. This doesn't apply to close family. For example, parents or children.

If someone asks you to take their completed ballot paper to the polling station on polling day, YOU CAN NOT. You need to get a neighbour of the voter to do it or give them a lift to hand it in.

When postal votes are handed in, the person handing them in will be asked to sign a legal declaration. Signing this with incorrect information could result in a prosecution of signing a false statement. The last election conviction for signing a false statement was 17 months in jail and £28,000, although this related to nomination papers. Any one can only hand in a maximum of 5 postal ballot packs plus your own.

If you have any questions about this, email compliance@libdems.org.uk

Update:

At pm the Mobile Phone rang from a Spam Caller dialling from 020 4519 5116.

Monstrous creep, Amulya Nayak texted me on WhatsApp after having sent me a annoying picture-message the other day that I ignored and cleared and blocked him but later unblocked him and sent him a sharing text on truth being invincible in effect) so now he texted 'sei loka aailene'. I blocked him again and cleared by chat conversation.

The email from Adam Williams (he/him), Deputy Head of Field Resources, Liberal Democrats states that I am a Member of the Liberal Democrats. That is good enough for me. With the silence of the Central London County Court and Maidstone Crown Court, I will have nothing to do with legal matters now. I have ready access to Campaigns Hub and Liberal Democrats have resumed sending me electioneering emails.

15.33 pm (UK-Time) 17 April 2024

With these bombardment that I receive: I saw a hole in my position namely that there is no certainty that I am still a member of the Liberal Democrats in that the Appeal is still being considered pending which the Party is getting on with its business as usual without refunding my £15 membership Fee. So with a new contact made in Adam Williams I started drafting an email to see if there was some further clarification of the matters. As I was preparing my email the Mobile Phone rang again from a Spam Caller dialling from 020 4519 5116 at 3.46 pm. I continued drafting the email and sent it:

Comment:

I have already made it clear on LinkedIn that I do not work for the Medway Council anymore for various reasons, that are part of the legal assessment at the Central London County Court under Claim E35YM660 or at Maidstone Crown Court and these Courts could easily send me something in the post at any time. From my faint recollection the Liberal Democrat Councillor may have been involved with Jane Ringham in the events of 2022 so I cannot do anything in response until the Liberal Democrats have responded on the progress of the Appeal against refusal to let me rejoin the Party that I have questioned to Adam Williams today. So it all depends on Adam Williams next email to me as the Deputy Field Officer for the Liberal Democrats. In the meantime, I just go through the Campaign Hub and keep myself busy. And if the Courts are considering some movement, Vince Maple of the Labour Party was explicitly asked to look into Jane Ringham's attitude problem with regards to my employment. But it is the Liberal Democrats to whom I had written that I did not get a disciplinary hearing before my employment by Medway Council was terminated.

Dear Shantanu,

Thank you for your recent application to re-join the party. Unfortunately due to the outcome of your previous membership, your membership has flagged as requiring approval from your Local Party before we can re-accept you into the Party. This decision was made, according to my records, in March 2021 and was communicated at this time. I do not have any further information on the specifics of this.

I will be arranging a refund of the £15 you paid as part of the application process, which will take 7-10 working days to be refunded to your account.

Kind regards,

Dean

South East Region's Liberal Democrats

Dear Sir/Madam

I wish to go through the following suggestion from Daniel Griffiths for I do wish to join the Liberal Democrats. If I did anything wrong in 2022, please bear in mind that I have been a psychiatric patient for the better part of 35 years and had spelt this out to you in since I rejoined the Party on 1 April 2024. I have especially found that I find it very difficult mentally to cope with uncertainties so that I probe incessantly at whatever comes my way, and this may be why you considered that I might have inadvertently sent some of my emails to you and Jane Ringham of Medway Council as inappropriate. I had been trolled heavily due to the compulsion to truth-seek that we Hindus are brought up to do as our dharma (duties and righteous karma, that is actions). Unfortunately, people can often misunderstand my intentions to be something other than this basic instinct of survival that humans have evolved, in some more than in others.

I do not have time or patience to go through the details of the correspondence that took place during 2022 which raised eyebrows it is clear now from what Daniel Griffiths has written, but if there was a forgive and forget option available so that we can let bygones be bygones I would love it if I could rejoin immediately.

Yours sincerely

 Subject: Recent membership application
 To: shanpanigrahi@yahoo.co.uk

Dear Shantanu,

Thank you for your recent application to re-join the party. Unfortunately, due to the outcome of your previous membership, your membership has flagged as requiring approval from your Local Party before we can re-accept you into the Party. This decision was made, according to my records, in March 2021 and was communicated at this time. I do not have any further information on the specifics of this.

I will be arranging a refund of the £15 you paid as part of the application process, which will take 7-10 working days to be refunded to your account.

Kind regards,

Dean

Last Updated: 19.34 pm (UK-Time) 17 April 2024

I just checked my Barclaycard Statement which shows that the Liberal Democrats did refund me the £15 on 2 April 2024.

This and lots of other issues will have to be sorted out in the Central London County Court or Maidstone Crown Court, as there was no immediate acknowledgement of this email that I asked for. I also am able to use Campaigns Hub through the usual method. So why and how it was all done: just one of those things. I have the upper hand now, for the Courts are exposed and were using the slaves of the Crown to do their dirty work for them, with deceit.

Dear Dr. Panigrahi

If you wish to appeal the refusal of your membership application by the local and regional parties you can appeal via the English Appeals Panel. Please use this link to make your appeal. Your £15 refund is being processed by our central team.

From the perspective of the region and the local party this matter is now resolved unless your appeal is upheld by the Panel. Therefore, we will not be entering into any further correspondence on this matter.

ENGLISH LIBERAL DEMOCRATS APPEALS PANEL

We understand that you may wish to appeal to the above panel. In order that we may first decide whether we are the right body to consider the issue you wish to raise, we ask that you complete the form below as succinctly as possible.

1. Name: Dr Shantanu Panigrahi

Address: 3 Hoath Lane, Wigmore, Gillingham, Kent ME9 0SL, United Kingdom.

Telephone: 07967789619 E-mail: shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com

Party Membership Number: 24041198559

2. The details of the Party body or officer/s with whom you are in dispute (with names as necessary): Mr Paul Farthing (SELP Chair) and Mr Mike Dixon (CEO Lib Dems)

3. The grounds for your proposed appeal (n.b. the Panel will not simply re-hear your case): I am informed that my attempt at rejoining the Liberal Democrats on 1 April 2024 was refused for internal Party reasons that despite me seeking clarification it was not provided and I was blocked from communicating with Mr Mike Dixon on 'WhatsApp' and from Mr Paul Farthing. So, there is clearly a dispute that requires examination under this Appeal for my membership of the Liberal Democrats to be restored.

4. The ruling that you would wish the Panel to make in your favour: Permitting me to submit a Fresh Application Form under this Membership Number to rejoin the Liberal Democrats Party.

Please return this form within fourteen days to: Standards Officer at standardsofficer@libdems.org.uk, or by post to Office of the English Party, LDHQ, 1 Vincent Square, London, SW1P 2PN.

If it is decided that your case does fall within the remit of the Appeals Panel, you will be asked immediately for further information and a date for your hearing will be fixed.

Please state here any dates that you will not be available:

Please note this extract from English Party constitution article 9.6:

9.6 Any decision of the Panel shall, subject to any right of appeal under the Federal Constitution, be final and binding on all concerned. The Panel shall publish any decisions, which, in the opinion of the Chair, are likely to be of value as a precedent.

Your Honour

The Liberal Democrats are getting me into a wild goose chase by diversionary tactics involving various members and institutions of the Party and kicking the ball into the long grass in relation to the proceedings:

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/a20170027-46ty0039517-dr-s-panigrahi-v-kent-police-with-co-conspirators-1>.

I had tried to put the sordid events of 2022 as something that is an ill wind that blows nobody any good as attached:

ToLiberalDemocratsSouthEastJECastleLynlbejiAnnaTarrantPaulFarthing(Forgive&ForgetOption)17Apr2024.docx, but subsequently received the attached communication from Mr Paul Farthing: Fr(Update on Recent Concerns on my Membership of the Liberal Democrats)17Apr2024.docx. I therefore had no choice in order to protect my reputation but to go through the Party's Appeals process that is formally acknowledged in the automatic communication below, but nothing further has so far come officially.

I feel that this matter must be resolved at a Hearing or Summary Judgment in light of this further evidence in relation to my communications to the Court as attached:

Dear Dr Panigrahi

Your complaint about Vitali-Chi

Thank you for copying us into your email dated 17 April 2024 in which you have mentioned the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman has not completed a report on your complaint against Jill Jesson of Vitali-Chi.

We sent you an email on 12 January 2024 advising you that we are unable to take action on your complaint. We are only able to consider complaints about the NHS in England and some Government departments.

Vitali-Chi is a private company with no links to the NHS. As Vitali-Chi is not an organisation we can investigate, we have taken no further action and will continue to take no further action. Please note, any further emails on this matter will be logged but may not be responded to.

Good morning,

Thank you for your email, which you have sent to the Car Finance Collective Actions team, they have in turn forwarded it to ourselves in the Client Care team as your enquiry had no relation to Car Finance.

Please be advised that I have searched our records and found no file for you. I have, however, found a series of emails from 2023, 2022, 2021 and 2020 that repeatedly advise that we do not represent you in any legal matter.

It is unclear if this is merely a misunderstanding on your part but for the avoidance of any doubt, please note that we are not your solicitors.

, did you purchase a car on finance before January 2021?

You could be owed £1000s in compensation.

The Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) is investigating high commissions charged on car and van finance before 28 January 2021.

This comes after concerns from consumers alleging their vehicle finance contract was more expensive so their dealer stood to earn a larger commission.

Dear Dr. Panigrahi,

Your complaint about OLIVES SOLICITORS LIMITED

Thank you for contacting the Legal Ombudsman on 24 November and 16 December.

As mentioned before, please note that we will not be able to proceed with your complaint unless you have filled in our complaint form.

Besides, we will not be able to investigate your complaint unless you have complained to Olives Solicitors first.

Please allow them 8 weeks to response once you have complained before coming to us.

Dear Mr Panigrahi

I write further to your email and note your comments. I can confirm that the BSB is not the correct body at this stage, to consider your matter. The BSB Regulation E4 of the BSB Handbook states this,

“If a report is received by the Bar Standards Board from a person entitled to complain to the Legal Ombudsman about the subject of the report, the Commissioner must refer the report without further consideration to the Legal Ombudsman or signpost the provider of the report to the Legal Ombudsman.”

Any complaints relating to concerns about an individual’s own barrister should be made to the Legal Ombudsman (LeO) in the first instance. This is because the LeO is able to consider complaints relating to service issues and offer remedies that the BSB does not have the power to offer. If the LeO considers that there has been potential misconduct, then they will refer the case to the BSB to consider. The BSB is unable to consider reports made from client’s of barristers directly, unless a referral is received from the LeO or LeO is unable to consider the matter.

If LeO do not accept your complaint, you can then come back to the BSB with a copy of LeO's decision letter and we will then look to see if we can consider it.

This concludes our consideration of your report. Whilst there is no right of appeal in relation to our decisions, you are able to make written representations and/or provide further evidence which will be considered by a senior officer.

Kind regards,

United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation Information

The General Council of the Bar ("the Bar Council") processes your personal data (as defined by the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) for the following purposes:

1. The assessment and investigation of any allegations or issues of conduct about a barrister made by you to the Bar Standards Board (BSB);
2. obtaining information from you about the circumstances of a report which has been made to the Bar Standards Board;
3. transferring your personal data to those involved with, or who have information regarding the investigation of the allegation, conduct issue or breach of the rules of the Bar Standards Board or the barrister's Inn, including Referrals to the BSB Supervision Team, Chambers and/or BSB entities or Alternative Business Structures (bodies fully owned and managed by authorised individuals, i.e., lawyers with current practising certificates, OR owned and managed jointly by authorised individuals and non-authorised individuals, i.e. non-lawyers);
4. transferring your personal data to the barrister's Inn, the Barrister's Circuit, the Barrister's employer, the Legal Ombudsman, Legal Services Board, the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner, or other regulatory body;
5. to make referrals to the Office of Judicial Complaints, Lord Chancellor/Ministers, to direct the barrister to attend on an external person to receive advice, in connection with the barrister's application for King's Counsel/judicial appointment, or for any other good reason;
6. undertaking any hearing into any allegation, conduct issue or breach of the rules of the Bar Standards Board, or the barrister's Inn, conducted by the Bar Standards Board, including Disciplinary Tribunal Hearings Conducted by the Bar Tribunals & Adjudications Service (BTAS), Fitness to Practice and/or Disqualification proceedings;
7. producing and distributing a document detailing the results of any assessment, investigation and any resulting disciplinary procedure;
8. retaining your personal data in relation to the report you have made.
9. collecting and retaining anonymised Equality & Diversity data for monitoring purposes.
10. Using personal data in reports in an anonymous form (for example our Annual Enforcement Report), or for internal training purposes; and

11. Identifying improvements to our internal processes and systems.

We will show the report form you complete, and any evidence you provide, to the barrister or other regulated person concerned and anyone else necessary for us to consider your report or reports. However, we will not normally share your contact details, only your name.

The Bar Council (Bar Standards Board) is permitted by the Act to process your personal data and your special category personal data (as defined under the GDPR) on the grounds of performing a public task in the public interest, or to meet our legal obligations, and/or processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.

Results of disciplinary hearings are routinely made available on The Bar Standards Board's website at the conclusion of the hearing.

It may be necessary for the Bar Standards Board to transfer your personal data to a third country as part of any investigation that it undertakes. If this is necessary, we will do so in compliance with the conditions for transfer set out in Chapter V of the UK GDPR. This means that appropriate safeguards will be in place to adequately protect your personal data.

Dear Sir

I am not going to waste my time now with the process of complaints at Forz Khan or his chambers and never in a million years will I ever take my Complaint to the Legal Ombudsman for it is prejudiced against me as most recently evidenced from the manner in which the Legal Ombudsman dodged its responsibility over the complaint against Olives Solicitors who were usurped by Kent Police to terrorise me as a suspect on framed offences of stalking and sending malicious communications to individuals and institutions.

Over the past 10 years I brought numerous complaints against Law Firms to the Legal Ombudsman and I was totally dissatisfied by the responses which made it clear to me that the Legal Ombudsman were manipulated by the State-authorities against me, that led to the University of Greenwich depriving me of my severance pay at the very least of £55,000 (even if one was to not include the lost salary over the 26 years resulting from the unfounded allegation that I was blameworthy of misconduct so needed to be dismissed from employment); and being deprived by the Cabinet Office depriving me of the £4170 that I had to pay as costs in my £100 million demand for damages and compensation in (Panigrahi vs Prime Minister of the United Kingdom) in Claim Number E35YM660 of the Central London County Court that Mr Forz Khan distanced himself from in the middle of proceedings, apart from the obvious case of the private prosecution of Kent Police that Mr Khan prevaricated on taking undue time to file the summons in East Kent Magistrates Court or North Kent Magistrates Court, so that I had to demand my £3000 paid to him/his chambers. He was also apparently in receipt of trolling emails organised by M15/M16 to pervert the course of justice against me in these matters, perhaps he can put the record straight now.

For your information the Case is pending attention of the Judge at Maidstone Crown Court at this moment as linked here:

From the email below it appears that Mr Forz Khan was representing you. Therefore, if you wish to make a report about him, you will need to firstly make a report to the barrister or his chambers through their complaints process, allowing them about 4 weeks to respond to you. If after this you are still not satisfied, you will need to make your report to the Legal Ombudsman. You can find more information about the Legal Ombudsman here

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in either the Magistrates Court or in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

The highest Court of the United Kingdom it emerges is the Crown Court which has a Case has to go through towards...

I am not legally trained obviously, perhaps I need to go through North Kent Magistrates Court first because the summons that I required from Maidstone Crown Court has met with a blank wall of silence.

If you can advise me for a small Fee as one-off payment just for legal advise and not anything further, I would be grateful

Dear PHSO

I am puzzled by this response to the proceedings, in which I stated that 'The Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman has not furnished its report on my complaint against the National Health Service and Jill Jesson of Vitali-Chi'; see link here:

There is also the complaint against the Charity Commission monitoring the Samaritans and the Citizens Advice Bureau that requires assessment.

I would be grateful for an update, copied to my barrister Mr Forz Khan as attached:

We sent you an email on 12 January 2024 advising you that we are unable to take action on your complaint. We are only able to consider complaints about the NHS in England and some Government departments.

Dear Sir/Madam

I wish to go through the following suggestion from Daniel Griffiths for I do wish to join the Liberal Democrats. If I did anything wrong in 2022, please bear in mind that I have been a psychiatric patient for the better part of 35 years and had spelt this out to you in since I rejoined the Party on 1 April 2024. I have especially found that I find it very difficult mentally to cope with uncertainties so that I probe incessantly at whatever comes my way, and this may be why you considered that I might have inadvertently sent some of my emails to you and Jane Righam of Medway Council as inappropriate. I had been trolled heavily due to the compulsion to truth-seek that we Hindus are brought up to do as our dharma (duties and righteous karma, that is actions). Unfortunately, people can often misunderstand my intentions to be something other than this basic instinct of survival that humans have evolved, in some more than in others.

I do not have time or patience to go through the details of the correspondence that took place during 2022 which raised eyebrows it is clear now from what Daniel Griffiths has written, but if there was a forgive and forget option available so that we can let bygones be bygones I would love it if I could rejoin immediately.

Thank you for your recent application to re-join the party. Unfortunately, due to the outcome of your previous membership, your membership has flagged as requiring approval from your Local Party before we can re-accept you into the Party. This decision was made, according to my records, in March 2021 and was communicated at this time. I do not have any further information on the specifics of this.

I will be arranging a refund of the £15 you paid as part of the application process, which will take 7-10 working days to be refunded to your account.

Kind regards,

Dean

Dear Sir/Madam

In accordance with the decision of Mr Paul Farthing yesterday evening, I have completed my EAP form attached herewith for your kind consideration: EAP_FORM Liberal Democrats Appeal to Rejoin as Member.docx.

I wait to hear from you as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

ENGLISH LIBERAL DEMOCRATS APPEALS PANEL

We understand that you may wish to appeal to the above panel. In order that we may first decide whether we are the right body to consider the issue you wish to raise, we ask that you complete the form below as succinctly as possible.

1. Name: Dr Shantanu Panigrahi

Address: 3 Hoath Lane, Wigmore, Gillingham, Kent ME9 0SL, United Kingdom.

Telephone: 07967789619 E-mail: shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com

Party Membership Number: 24041198559

2. The details of the Party body or officer/s with whom you are in dispute (with names as necessary): Mr Paul Farthing (SELP Chair) and Mr Mike Dixon (CEO Lib Dems)

3. The grounds for your proposed appeal (n.b. the Panel will not simply re-hear your case): I am informed that my attempt at rejoining the Liberal Democrats on 1 April 2024 was refused for internal Party reasons that despite me seeking clarification it was not provided and I was blocked from communicating with Mr Mike Dixon on 'WhatsApp' and from Mr Paul Farthing. So, there is clearly a dispute that requires examination under this Appeal for my membership of the Liberal Democrats to be restored.

4. The ruling that you would wish the Panel to make in your favour: Permitting me to submit a Fresh Application Form under this Membership Number to rejoin the Liberal Democrats Party.

Please return this form within fourteen days to: Standards Officer at standardsofficer@libdems.org.uk, or by post to Office of the English Party, LDHQ, 1 Vincent Square, London, SW1P 2PN.

If it is decided that your case does fall within the remit of the Appeals Panel, you will be asked immediately for further information and a date for your hearing will be fixed.

Please state here any dates that you will not be available:

Please note this extract from English Party constitution article 9.6:

9.6 Any decision of the Panel shall, subject to any right of appeal under the Federal Constitution, be final and binding on all concerned. The Panel shall publish any decisions, which, in the opinion of the Chair, are likely to be of value as a precedent.

5. Date: 18 April 2024

Thank you for emailing the Liberal Democrats Standards Office. Please accept this email as confirmation that your correspondence has been received successfully.

The Standards Office is an administrative office that supports multiple Complaints Processes. We are working through all communications as soon as practicable but we kindly ask you to allow up to 5 working days (Monday to Friday, excluding bank holidays) for a response to your email.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

If your email relates to a data breach or GDPR concern (such as a subject access request or data deletion), the Standards Office is unable to review his type of concern and you must raise it with the Data Protection Team directly. Their email address is data.protection@libdems.org.uk and if you would like more information, please view their section of the Liberal Democrats website here: <https://www.libdems.org.uk/members/compliance-data-protection>

If your email was the first time you have notified the Standards Office of a Complaint you would like to raise, please complete our Complaint form available here:

<https://www.libdems.org.uk/making-a-complaint>

This allows the Standards Office to capture all relevant information to help us log your Complaint without delay.

If you are looking for an update on a Complaint that has already been acknowledged and given a reference number, you can keep track of the Complaint and any update via our Complaints management system, Hoowla. You will have been provided with a link to your Complaint file at the same time you received your acknowledgement.

Kind regards,

The Standards Office

Good morning,

Thank you for your email, which you have sent to the Car Finance Collective Actions team, they have in turn forwarded it to ourselves in the Client Care team as your enquiry had no relation to Car Finance.

Please be advised that I have searched our records and found no file for you. I have, however, found a series of emails from 2023, 2022, 2021 and 2020 that repeatedly advise that we do not represent you in any legal matter.

It is unclear if this is merely a misunderstanding on your part but for the avoidance of any doubt, please note that we are not your solicitors.

Dear Slater and Gordon

I was of the belief that I had paid you £100 as a down-payment for your legal services but do not have a record that Daniel Cook suing Kent Police at Maidstone Crown Court refunded it before the left Slater and Gordon with this unfinished business.

You could be owed £1000s in compensation.

The Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) is investigating high commissions charged on car and van finance before 28 January 2021.

This comes after concerns from consumers alleging their vehicle finance contract was more expensive so their dealer stood to earn a larger commission.

Dear Slater and Gordon

I do apologise for sending you the link; I now realise that it may have been premature in the circumstances.

But I have just received a WhatsApp text from my wife Rashmi Praharaj about an international payment that we made to her brother in India (Bhubaneswar) of £1000 as a Gift and for the second time in as many weeks, there has been a problem in that the money left our current account but has not been credited to Mr Mihir Kanta Praharaj's Account in India. I had told my wife that we/I am the victim of a national and international conspiracy to terrorise us, but my wife would not believe me thinking that I am insane.

I hope that you will take this into account.

Thank you.

Dear Slater and Gordon

I do apologise for sending you the link; I now realise that it may have been premature in the circumstances.

But I have just received a WhatsApp text from my wife Rashmi Praharaj about an international payment that we made to her brother in India (Bhubaneswar) of £1000 as a Gift and for the second time in as many weeks, there has been a problem in that the money left our current account but has not been credited to Mr Mihir Kant Praharaj's Account in India. I had told my wife that we I am the victim of a national and international conspiracy to terrorise us, but my wife would not believe me thinking that I am insane.

I hope that you will take this into account.

Thank you
 Yours sincerely

Dear Sirs

I appreciate that your Firm has never had any time or resources devoted to my Case since the dates that you mentioned in your first email when I mentioned that I seemed to have paid a certain Daniel Cook of Slater and Gordon and you never clarified that this money was or was not refunded to me on proceedings at Maidstone Crown Court against Kent Police, so I was not trying to suggest that I required your services now. I was merely explaining to you the reason that I responded to your Car Finance email thinking you had clearly changed your mind about representing me. My memory on whether I had referred Slater and Gordon to the Legal Ombudsman fails me.

Be that as it may, you should be now fully aware that I have a barrister since Slater and Gordon let me down to take over the Case as you will note from the attachment: ToForzKhan(Text message on my Mobile Phone this morning)18Apr2024.docx.

In this regard, please note the adjudication of the Bar Standards Board as attached:

Dear Mr Panigrahi

I write further to your email and note your comments. I can confirm that the BSB is not the correct body at this stage, to consider your matter. The BSB Regulation E4 of the BSB Handbook states this,

“If a report is received by the Bar Standards Board from a person entitled to complain to the Legal Ombudsman about the subject of the report, the Commissioner must refer the report without further consideration to the Legal Ombudsman or signpost the provider of the report to the Legal Ombudsman.”

Any complaints relating to concerns about an individual’s own barrister should be made to the Legal Ombudsman (LeO) in the first instance. This is because the LeO is able to consider complaints relating to service issues and offer remedies that the BSB does not have the power to offer. If the LeO considers that there has been potential misconduct, then they will refer the case to the BSB to consider. The BSB is unable to consider reports made from client’s of barristers directly, unless a referral is received from the LeO or LeO is unable to consider the matter.

If LeO do not accept your complaint, you can then come back to the BSB with a copy of LeO’s decision letter and we will then look to see if we can consider it.

This concludes our consideration of your report. Whilst there is no right of appeal in relation to our decisions, you are able to make written representations and/or provide further evidence which will be considered by a senior officer.

Kind regards,

Contact and Assessment Team

United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation Information

The General Council of the Bar (“the Bar Council”) processes your personal data (as defined by the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) for the following purposes:

1. The assessment and investigation of any allegations or issues of conduct about a barrister made by you to the Bar Standards Board (BSB);
2. obtaining information from you about the circumstances of a report which has been made to the Bar Standards Board;
3. transferring your personal data to those involved with, or who have information regarding the investigation of the allegation, conduct issue or breach of the rules of the Bar Standards Board or the barrister’s Inn, including Referrals to the BSB Supervision Team, Chambers and/or BSB entities or Alternative Business Structures (bodies fully owned and managed by authorised individuals, i.e., lawyers with current practising certificates, OR owned and managed jointly by authorised individuals and non-authorised individuals, i.e. non-lawyers);
4. transferring your personal data to the barrister’s Inn, the Barrister’s Circuit, the Barrister’s employer, the Legal Ombudsman, Legal Services Board, the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner, or other regulatory body;
5. to make referrals to the Office of Judicial Complaints, Lord Chancellor/Ministers, to direct the barrister to attend on an external person to receive advice, in connection with the barrister’s application for King’s Counsel/judicial appointment, or for any other good reason;
6. undertaking any hearing into any allegation, conduct issue or breach of the rules of the Bar Standards Board, or the barrister’s Inn, conducted by the Bar Standards Board, including Disciplinary Tribunal Hearings Conducted by the Bar Tribunals & Adjudications Service (BTAS), Fitness to Practice and/or Disqualification proceedings;
7. producing and distributing a document detailing the results of any assessment, investigation and any resulting disciplinary procedure;
8. retaining your personal data in relation to the report you have made.
9. collecting and retaining anonymised Equality & Diversity data for monitoring purposes.
10. Using personal data in reports in an anonymous form (for example our Annual Enforcement Report), or for internal training purposes; and
11. Identifying improvements to our internal processes and systems.

We will show the report form you complete, and any evidence you provide, to the barrister or other regulated person concerned and anyone else necessary for us to consider your report or reports. However, we will not normally share your contact details, only your name.

The Bar Council (Bar Standards Board) is permitted by the Act to process your personal data and your special category personal data (as defined under the GDPR) on the grounds of performing a public task in the public interest, or to meet our legal obligations, and/or processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.

Results of disciplinary hearings are routinely made available on The Bar Standards Board’s website at the conclusion of the hearing.

It may be necessary for the Bar Standards Board to transfer your personal data to a third country as part of any investigation that it undertakes. If this is necessary, we will do so in compliance with the conditions for transfer set out in Chapter V of the UK GDPR. This means that appropriate safeguards will be in place to adequately protect your personal data.

For more information about how we process your personal data, including your rights and details of how to exercise them, please refer to our Privacy Statement at <https://www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/privacy-statement.html>

Dear Sir

I am not going to waste my time now with the process of complaints at Forz Khan or his chambers and never in a million years will I ever take my Complaint to the Legal Ombudsman for it is prejudiced against me as most recently evidenced from the manner in which the Legal Ombudsman dodged its responsibility over the complaint against Olives Solicitors who were usurped by Kent Police to terrorise me as a suspect on framed offences of stalking and sending malicious communications to individuals and institutions.

Over the past 10 years I brought numerous complaints against Law Firms to the Legal Ombudsman and I was totally dissatisfied by the responses which made it clear to me that the Legal Ombudsman were manipulated by the State-authorities against me, that led to the University of Greenwich depriving me of my severance pay at the very least of £55,000 (even if one was to not include the lost salary over the 26 years resulting from the unfounded allegation that I was blameworthy of misconduct so needed to be dismissed from employment); and being deprived by the Cabinet Office depriving me of the £4170 that I had to pay as costs in my £100 million demand for damages and compensation in (Panigrahi vs Prime Minister of the United Kingdom) in Claim Number E35YM660 of the Central London County Court that Mr Forz Khan distanced himself from in the middle of proceedings, apart from the obvious case of the private prosecution of Kent Police that Mr Khan prevaricated on taking undue time to file the summons in East Kent Magistrates Court or North Kent Magistrates Court, so that I had to demand my £3000 paid to him/his chambers. He was also apparently in receipt of trolling emails organised by M15/M16 to pervert the course of justice against me in these matters, perhaps he can put the record straight now.

For your information the Case is pending attention of the Judge at Maidstone Crown Court at this moment as linked here:

Dear Dr Panigrahi

Thank you for your email.

From the email below it appears that Mr Forz Khan was representing you. Therefore, if you wish to make a report about him, you will need to firstly make a report to the barrister or his chambers through their complaints process, allowing them about 4 weeks to respond to you. If after this you are still not satisfied, you will need to make your report to the Legal Ombudsman. You can find more information about the Legal Ombudsman here <https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/>.

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in either the Magistrates Court or in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

The highest Court of the United Kingdom it emerges is the Crown Court which has a Case has to go through towards...

I am not legally trained obviously, perhaps I need to go through North Kent Magistrates Court first because the summons that I required from Maidstone Crown Court has met with a blank wall of silence.

If you can advise me for a small Fee as one-off payment just for legal advise and not anything further, I would be grateful

THIS IS AN AUTOMATED RESPONSE – PLEASE DO NOT REPLY

Thank you for contacting the Contact and Assessment Team of the BSB.

If you are seeking to make a report

Please use our online reporting form which is available here. This will ensure that your report is properly logged and will help to provide us with the information we need to complete an assessment of your concern.

If you have already made a report

We receive a large number of reports and it is currently taking us at least eight weeks to complete an initial assessment. We will contact you once we have completed our assessment, although we may be in touch with you before then if we need more information about your concern. Please note that we can't give detailed updates on the progress of our assessments.

If you are a barrister making a report about another barrister under rule rC66 of The BSB Handbook, we will only contact you if we need more information. You won't be informed of the outcome of our assessment.

You can read about our process for assessing information here.

If you are making a general enquiry

Answers to frequently asked questions and a link to our Contact Form can be found here.

We try to answer all queries within 5 working days. If we need to pass your enquiry to another team, we will let you know. If that happens, please allow extra time for a response.

Please note we won't be able to give advice or answer queries about specific conduct or applications.

Thank you for your enquiry

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 12 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman
PO Box 6167
SLOUGH
SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

If you are requesting personal data under Freedom of Information or the Environmental Information Regulations or would like a copy of personal data under Data Protection please email infosec@legalombudsman.org.uk

Hi Shantanu,

Got your eye on something for your home or garden? Forget paying in one go. With PayPal you can split the cost of nearly any purchase into 3 manageable payments by selecting Pay in 3 at checkout.* Now that's an easier way to stay in control of your budget when shopping at millions of online stores this spring.

Pay in 3 is an unregulated credit agreement, so you will have fewer protections under this agreement than you would under a regulated credit agreement. Carefully consider whether the purchase is affordable and how you will make the repayments. Be aware of the possible impact of using Pay in 3 and of missing payments, including making other borrowing more difficult or more expensive. You may find our Spend Smarter Guide helpful. You can use Pay in 3 on purchases of £30 - £2,000.

Dear Sirs

I appreciate that your Firm has never had any time or resources devoted to my Case since the dates that you mentioned in your first email when I mentioned that I seemed to have paid a certain Daniel Cook of Slater and Gordon and you never clarified that this money was or was not refunded to me on proceedings at Maidstone Crown Court against Kent Police, so I was not trying to suggest that I required your services now. I was merely explaining to you the reason that I responded to your Car Finance email thinking you had clearly changed your mind about representing me. My memory on whether I had referred Slater and Gordon to the Legal Ombudsman fails me.

Be that as it may, you should be now fully aware that I have a barrister since Slater and Gordon let me down to take over the Case as you will note from the attachment: ToForzKhan(Text message on my Mobile Phone this morning)18Apr2024.docx.

In this regard, please note the adjudication of the Bar Standards Board as attached:

Dear Slater and Gordon

I do apologise for sending you the link; I now realise that it may have been premature in the circumstances.

But I have just received a WhatsApp text from my wife Rashmi Praharaj about an international payment that we made to her brother in India (Bhubaneswar) of £1000 as a Gift and for the second time in as many weeks, there has been a problem in that the money left our current account but has not been credited to Mr Mihir Kant Praharaj's Account in India. I had told my wife that we I am the victim of a national and international conspiracy to terrorise us, but my wife would not believe me thinking that I am insane.

I hope that you will take this into account.

Thank you.
